A large graphic showing the numbers 1 and 4. The number 1 is on the left, and the number 4 is on the right. Both numbers are rendered in a light gray, outlined style. Overlaid on the numbers are various colored lines (red, blue, green, yellow) and dashed lines that indicate the correct stroke order and direction for writing each digit. The number 1 is formed by a single vertical stroke, while the number 4 is formed by two strokes: a vertical one and a diagonal one.
